EDWARDS, Holly Springs, Miss.
One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy—tumor. If you have mysterious pains, inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait for tion or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital opera-tion, but try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vege-table compound at once.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and such unquestionable testimony as the above proves the value of this famous remedy, and should give everyone confidence.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confiden-tial letter to Mrs. Pinkbam, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growibs back to flesh again. That is impossible.
But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmsin'll—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that hat ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; butnow, at last, frunformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much draeded disease. Those cand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic-Blood, seemto discolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. freely as does sugar when added to pure water, and then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes sm is gone forever. There is now no the payment of $15,000 under a threat of death, was convicted of attempted extortion yesterday before Judge Fawcett in the county court, Brocklyn. He will be sentenced next Monday.

Mr. Caruso was not present when the verdict was announced. He left for Europe on Tuesday, soon after he had testified against the accused blackmailer, and unless a wireless message carries the news of his persecutor's conviction he will not learn of the disposition of the case until he reaches foreign shores early next week.

The jury spent about three hours deliberating before it decided that Mislani was one of the authors of the letters which gave to the great tenor the worst alarm of his life. The young Italian defendant, who decisred he was not a blackmailer, but an importer of oils, accepted the verdict without the slightest sign of emotion.

Even his sister in Toronto, Canada, he says, was deceived, and wrote him a reproachful letter. Justice Whitney considered the explanation sufficient to grant the application.
